

MILITARY OUTINGS.

COMING SUMMER EXCURSIONS.

OPENING THE STATE CAMP—THE TRIP TO BULL RUN—EXPEDITIONS 40 GREENWOOD.

The 14th Regiment of Brooklyn, and the 22d, 29th, 50th and 62d Separate Companies will open the State Camp of Instruction, near Peekskill, next Saturday. It is expected that they will have full ranks. Adjutant General Porter, whose trip to Europe has done him good, will be in command of the Post and will have a brilliant staff. During the summer the Commander-in-Chief will visit the camp.

It is expected that there will be at least 400 men in the visiting battalion of the 1st Regiment, which is to make the trip to Richmond and the Bull Run battlefield next month. Clapp's new regimental band of forty pieces will accompany the command.

The Veteran Corps of the 22d Regiment, Colonel S. E. Briggs, will meet at the headquarters, No. 4 Union Square, next Tuesday evening. Members intending to take part in the trip to Brooklyn, Connecticut, will be in the ceremony attending the dedication of the monument to General Israel Putnam, will meet at the New York steamer, Pier No. 40 North River, at 4:30 p. m. next Wednesday. The new uniform will be worn on this occasion. Captain Palmer will have charge of materials and transportation, and all baggage must be plainly marked and delivered to him at the boat at 4 p. m.

Competitions for places on the ride team of the 22d Regiment took place last week and the week before at Croton, and will be continued on Saturday, June 16, at 10 and 80. On these days the boat will leave James Slip at 2:30 p. m. and Thirty-fourth-street, at 4:45 p. m., and the train will leave Long Island City at 2:05 p. m.

CONDITIONS FOR PLACE ON THE TEAM.

Prizing will begin as soon after arrival at Croton as is possible. For place on the team it will be necessary to fire two strings at the two-hundred-and five-hundred-yard ranges on three different days. Two sighting shots are allowed at each range. Transportation will be furnished upon application to the Regimental Inspector of Rifle Practice at the armory, the Monday evening prior to each of the dates mentioned. The sixteen men making the highest aggregate score on any three of the dates named will be selected to shoot a place and substitutes twelve men to compose the team and four substitutes. There are some excellent shots in the regiment, and doubtless a strong team will be selected.

A handsome gold-mounted sword and belt has been presented by Company H of the 1st Regiment through Col. John Kupper to Captain A. P. DeMolay. The captain has worked hard for the company, and is now ranks as one of the best in the regiment.

A warm reception is promised to Company H in Richmond next July, in return for the hospitality extended by the command to the Richmond Grays during the recent visit of the latter to this city.

The proceedings and sentences of a Delinquent Court of the 9th Regiment, convened pursuant to orders from regimental headquarters, have been approved by Colonel Stewart. The court imposed fines on 146 non-commissioned officers and men. Fines amounting to $38 were imposed on Robert McCall, of Company I, who heads the list of delinquents.

The time allowed by law for making appeals from the decision of the Delinquent Court expired last Friday evening, at which time those who had excused themselves to the Colonels at the armory.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE.

The new amendment to the Military Code have been promulgated in general orders by Adjutant-General Porter for the information and government of all concerned. Two important sections defining the various commands, fixing their strengths and providing for the increase of regiments is issued, remains at the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief as follows:

Section 7.—The uniformed militia of the State shall constitute and be known as the National Guard of the State of New-York, and shall consist of the present uniformed force and such persons as shall enlire or be appointed or commissioned therein; the present organizations, namely the present brigades, regiments, battalions, troops, batteries and companies shall remain as now established, but the Commander-in-Chief shall have power to alter, divide, annex, consolidate, disband or reorganize the same, and create new organizations, whenever in his judgment the efficiency of the State forces will be thereby increased; and he shall, at any time, have power to change the organization of regiments, battalions, troops, batteries or companies, so as to conform more nearly to any organization that may hereafter be adopted for the United States Army, and for that purpose the said fifteen thousand officers of every grade in regiments, battalions, troops, companies, may be increased at the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief up to the number authorized for the United States Army; provided that the aggregate force of the National Guard in time of peace, fully armed, uniformed and equipped, shall not be less than ten and not over twenty thousand enlisted men, but the Commander-in-Chief shall have power in case of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof to increase the force beyond the said fifteen thousand, and organize the same as the exigencies of the service may require."

Section 10.—Each regiment of infantry shall consist of not less than eight nor more than twelve companies; one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, one major, and a regimental staff to consist of one adjutant, one quartermaster, one paymaster of subsistence, each with the rank of first lieutenant; one inspector of rifle practice with the rank of captain, one surgeon with the rank of captain, one assistant surgeon with the rank of captain, one chaplain with the rank of captain, who shall be regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination; one sergeant major, one quartermaster-sergeant, one commissary sergeant, one ordnance sergeant, one hospital steward, one bugler or trumpeter, one drum major, and two drummers and two general guides, each with the rank of sergeant. In case of a regiment of native companies, the Commander-in-Chief may authorize two additional majors, but should the regiment be reduced to ten companies by disbandment or otherwise, the Commander-in-Chief shall place on the list of supernumeraries those to whom majors in rank."

The pay for officers and men when ordered on duty is prescribed as follows:

"Section 22.—There shall be paid to such officers and enlisted men as shall be ordered for duty by the Commander-in-Chief in pursuance of the provisions of this act, the following sum each for every day actually on duty: To all musicians and privates, $1.25. To all sergeants and sergeants-majors, $2. To all other non-commissioned officers, $1.50. To all commissioned officers of the line, below the rank of captain, $2.50. To all commanding officers of companies, $5. To all commanding officers of regiments or battalions, $5. To the brigadier-generals, $6. To all major-generals, $7. To the general-generals, $8. To all staff officers, the same pay and allowances as are allowed to officers of equal grade in the line. All mounted officers and all members of any troop or battery, mounted and equipped, shall be paid $2 per day for each horse actually used by them."

"Section 44.—All officers detailed to serve on any board or commission ordered by the Commander-in-Chief, or on any court of inquiry, court-martial or delinquency court ordered by proper authority in pursuance of any provision of this act, shall be paid a sum equal to one day's pay for full duty for each day actually employed in such office or court, and the same shall be paid in the business thereof, or in traveling and from the same. A meeting and adjournment only shall not be considered a day of actual duty. The sum in no case shall exceed ten days' pay and actual travelling expenses, unless upon application of the judge advocate of a court-martial. The Commander-in-Chief has authorized the court to sit for a longer period than six days. To every marshal appointed to any such court shall be paid $2 per day for every day not exceeding ten actually employed in the execution of the duties required of him, and 25 per centum of all fines and dues collected by him, and mileage or actual necessary travelling expenses while engaged in serving subpoenas or executing my process of the court; the same to be paid in like manner with other military accounts, but no marshal shall receive any fees from the person served; but when the session of the court exceeds ten days he shall receive $2 additional for every day of such actual extra session. Provided, however, that the pay, allowances and expenses of officers detailed on delinquency courts for the trial of enlisted men, and of marshals appointed by such courts, shall be paid out of the military fund of the organization for which such courts are ordered."

A DINNER AT THE SEASIDE.

A dinner will be given at the Manhattan Beach Hotel on June 18, at 4 p. m., under the united auspices of the Veteran Corps of the 22d Regt. and James Monteau, G. A. R., to commemorate the anniversary of the departure of the 22d Regt. for Pennsylvania in 1863. The tickets will be $4, and can be obtained from Major J. G. McCutcheon, No. 409 Fourthave. Adjutant Robert De Noye Lloyd promises a grand time to all who attend.

John K. Green, on the 7th Regiment Staff, has invited a dinner will be given at the Manhattan Beach Hotel on June 18, at 4 p. m., under the united auspices of the Veteran Corps of the 22d Regt. and James Monteau, G. A. R., to commemorate the anniversary of the departure of the 22d Regt. for Pennsylvania in 1863. The tickets will be $4, and can be obtained from Major J. G. McCutcheon, No. 409 Fourthave. Adjutant Robert De Noye Lloyd promises a grand time to all who attend.

John O'Connell, who has been elected first lieutenant of Company C, 40th Regt., to fit the vacancy caused by the appointment of Lieutenant Murphy to the position of adjutant, served gallantly during the war. His promotion gives great satisfaction to his old comrades in the ranks, by whom he is held in high esteem.

Company F, 71st Regiment, Captain J. H. Dresser, had forty-two men present of the forty-six on the rolls at the Decoration Day parade. The wife of one of the absentees was dying and another was in Kansas, so that there were only two not accounted for.

Headquarters met in the 11th Regiment Army will be on Monday of each week instead of Friday. The innovation of skirmish drills, regulated by rifle-sights instead of rifle-blasts, as practised by Captain Schmidt, of Company E, 11th Regt., is attracting the attention of commanders in the National Guard. It seems to work well.

FOLLOWING A FAVORITE OFFICER.

William M. Blume, who has served in the 7th Regt.

for seventeen years, and William L. Burris, who has been a member for twelve years, have obtained their discharge from Company I and re-enlisted in Company F, whose first lieutenant, D. G. Gury, is now a member of the staff of Company I, and is a man whom their delight to see under.

Forrest Hinman, of Company C, 71st Regiment, has been appointed ordnance sergeant of the regiment. Corporal Joseph E. Watson, of Company A, has been promoted to the ranks at his own request.

Captain Mason, of Company G, 8th Regiment, is greatly pleased with the election of Corporal Eckendorfer to the position of sergeant, and of Privates Edward J. McCauley, Edward A. Fellows and Charles Morton to corporals. The company now is in good working order.

Ivan E. McGuire and Benjamin R. Henry have been elected sergeants of Company H, 22d Regiment. John W. McLeighan, James E. Briggs, William F. Bailey and Joseph C. Reehil have been chosen corporals.

The members of Company I, 8th Regiment, are just proud of the fine appearance of the command on Decoration Day. There were more men in the ranks of this company than of any other company in the regiment.

Coleman Camp, of the 22d Regiment, has appointed a delinquency court for the trial of enlisted men. Major George A. Miller will hold the trials at the armory.

In the competition in the O'Donnell Trophy on Thursday came within an ace of winning. The shooting of the company in both volley and skirmish practice was superior to that of every other company in the regiment. In attendance, which is also taken into consideration in the competition, Company I shot one man less than the winning company, and to this circumstance is due the loss of the trophy by the narrow margin of 40-100 of 1 percent.

STOCKS ACTIVE, BUT LOWER.

THE MARKET STEADY AT THE END.

LARGE SALES FOR A HALF DAY'S BUSINESS.

SALES AT THE STOCK EXCHANGE—JUNE 9.

THE GENERAL LIST.

BONDS.

STOCKS.

ACTUAL SALES.

CLOSING.

NUMBER OF SHARS SOLD.

HIGH & LOW.

LAST.

BID.

ASK'D.

TOTAL AMOUNT.

BONDS.

MINING STOCKS.

AMADOR.

BUTTE.

CALIFORNIA.

EDISON.

EL PASO.

EL PASO & SAN ANTONIO.

</